LETICIA GARZA GALVAN et al.

Plaintiff

v.

ROLANDO PABLOS et al.

Defendant

Civil Case No. 7:18-cv-00113

WAIVER OF SERVICE

To: Jerad Najvar

(Name of the plaintiff's attorney or unrepresented plaintiff)

I have received your request to waive service in this action along with two copies of this waiver form, a copy of the Plaintiffs' Suggestion of Death, Notice of Hearing on March 19, 2019, Motion for Substitution as Plaintiff and supporting exhibits, and a prepaid means of returning one signed copy of this form to you.

I agree to save the expense of serving a summons and complaint in this case.

I understand that waiving service of process does not affect my potential rights or interest in the underlying matter and that this solely constitutes as a waiver to service of process of the afore mentioned documents.

Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Expenses of Serving a Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain defendants to cooperate in saving unnecessary expenses of serving a summons and complaint. A defendant who is located in the United States and who fails to return a signed waiver of service requested by a plaintiff located in the United States will be required to pay the expenses of service, unless the defendant shows good cause for the failure.

"Good cause" does not include a belief that the lawsuit is groundless, or that it has been brought in an improper venue, or that the court has no jurisdiction over this matter or over the defendant or the defendant's property.

If the waiver is signed and returned, you can still make these and all other defenses and objections, but you cannot object to the absence of a summons or of service.

If you waive service, then you must, within the time specified on the waiver form, serve an answer or a motion under Rule 12 on the plaintiff and file a copy with the court. By signing and returning the waiver form, you are allowed more time to respond than if a summons had been served.
